

Week 3 - Board Prep Review Questions:

10-20 Head Measurement:

- 1) What is the % difference between P3 and PZ?
- 2) What is the % difference between Fp1 and Fp2?

Waveforms:

- 3) How do you localize a spike or sharp wave using a Referential Montage?
- 4) How do you localize a spike or sharp wave using a BiPolar Montage?
- 5) How do you describe the waveforms during a typical Absence Seizure?

Technical Recording:

- 6) What are the standard settings for recording an EEG?
- 7) Which of the standard settings is a technician able to modify during a recording?
- 8) Name at least 3 types of BiPolar Montages?

Neuroanatomy:

- 9) What is the Homunculus Man (or Cortical Homunculus)?
- 10) Based on question #9, what clinical signs might a patient show at their seizure onset if they have a spike localized at C3?