

Week 10 - Board Prep Review Questions:

Seizure Medication:

- 1) Zarontin is typically used to treat what type of seizures?
- 2) What kind of medication can produce Beta activity throughout a patient's EEG?

Waveforms:

- 3) Benign Rolandic Epilepsy is often seen with this type of waveform(s) on the EEG ?
- 4) What is SREDA?
- 5) What are wicket spikes?

Technical Recording:

- 6) What is the minimum sampling rate for EEG?
- 7) What is the function of a capacitor?
- 8) Gain is a ratio of _____ ?

Neuroanatomy:

- 9) The term Mesial means?
- 10) The term Dorsal means what area when referring to the Brain?